[00:00:00] Jodi: Hi, I'm Jodi.

[00:00:02] Keith: I'm Keith.

[00:00:02] Jodi: We're the hosts of Disability Deep Dive, a podcast from Disability Rights Florida.

[00:00:08] Keith: It's where real conversations about life, culture, and leadership meet the lived disability experience.

[00:00:14] Jodi: In Season One, we unpacked tough questions with advocates, creators, and researchers. You know, people changing how we think about access and belonging.

[00:00:23] Keith: Yeah. And now we're back with Season Two on November 6th and the conversations are getting even better. And this time you can see us.

[00:00:30] Jodi: That's right! Disability Deep Dive is now a video podcast.

[00:00:35] Keith: You'll still get the same thoughtful conversations, but now with faces, laughs, and all those in between moments that make the dialogue real.

[00:00:41] Jodi: From music to travel, influence to interpretation. Our guests are reimagining what's possible and how change really happens.

[00:00:49] Keith: We explore how stories shape systems and how lived experience drives innovation.

[00:00:54] Jodi: Because disability isn't a single story. It's part of every story.

[00:00:58] Keith: So get ready for Disability Deep Dive Season Two out on November 6th.

[00:01:03] Jodi: Listen or watch wherever you get your podcasts.

[00:01:05] Keith: And subscribe so you don't miss what's next.
